Please continue to check the website, as there will be material put up later. At least one additional audio file will be posted. Please review the Exodus 23 commentary, as we will discuss how the first third of that chapter meshes with what we have learned and talked about. This work will give you a jumpstart on your paper. While I have put you to work on your internet project, the paper will be talked about in more detail this week. You will be given a portion of class time in week 5 to work on this. The paper will be due Week 6.
