

The "Five Points" are not meant to be a complete outline, but rather five corrections of Arminian errors. Whether referred to as Calvinist Soteriology, Reformed theology, the doctrines of Grace, or God's Sovereignty, the entirety of the concept can be summed up in the phrase: God saves men.